Automakers Quietly Settle Antismog Suit

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A federal judge who approved an out-of-court settlement of the government's antismog suit against major automakers says his ruling was in the public interest.

U.S. Dist. Court Judge Jesse W. Curtis granted a consent decree Tuesday in response to a proposal by the Justice Department.

The suit, filed during the Johnson administration, accused General Motors, Ford, Chrysler, American Motors and the Automobile Manufacturers Association of conspiracy to delay development of antipollution equipment for their products. The decree forbids the continuation of practices the government complained about.

Judge Curtis said it would have been tragic had the court declined to sign the decree, the case then had gone to trial and the government had lost.

In his oral opinion, the jurist asserted the decree "gives the government all the relief it could have gained if it had tried the case and won." Additionally, he said, it saves the taxpayers the cost of a trial.

The decree was opposed by regional agencies throughout the nation, represented by at least 30 attorneys. They were joined by 52 congressmen who either objected to a consent decree or wanted modification of the terms of the settlement.

Judge Curtis noted that the consent decree will not prejudice the rights of anyone bringing damage suits against the automakers in connection with air pollution. Nor will it prevent local agencies or individuals from taking the matter to another court, he said.

Attorney Thomas Sheridan, representing congressmen opposed to the decree, commented: "Somewhere, sooner or later" (Continued on Page 22)

Saigon Regime Pardons 88 Red POWs

Top Buddhist Critic Given Official Pardon

SAIGON (AP) — The Saigon government pardoned one of its leading Buddhist critics today and released 88 Viet Cong prisoners of war as part of its observance of South Vietnam's National Day Nov. 1.

President Nguyen Van Thieu pardoned Thien Minh, the dissident monk imprisoned last March on a charge of harboring draft dodgers and deserters. A spokesman said Thien Minh, which is Vietnamese for the Buddhist title venerable, would be set free as soon as formalities were completed.

More than two thirds of the Viet Cong freed were women. Virtually no public fanfare attended the release of the POWs at numerous locations across the country although it was one of the largest groups of prisoners ever freed.

A government spokesman had announced Tuesday that 24 prisoners would be released for "humanitarian reasons." But there was no explanation why the government did not make the additional releases the occasion for a big propaganda splash.

A spokesman said 63 of the prisoners turned loose were women who had been held at a women's POW camp at Qui Nhon, 275 miles northeast of Saigon. Most of the 25 men came from the big POW camp at Bien Hoa, 15 miles northeast of Saigon.

One woman was released in a brief ceremony at Saigon's City Hall and three others at Bien Hoa. The government gave each 40 piasters—$3.40—and packages of clothing, blankets and other items.

The South Vietnamese government has released about 1,000 prisoners of war, by unofficial count, over the years. The largest group was 140 set free on Nov. 30, 1968.

The releases sometimes have been in reciprocation for releases by the Viet Cong and sometimes to mark holidays. Vietnamese National Day on Nov. 1 commemorates the overthrow of President Ngo Dinh Diem in 1963.

On the battlefields, the allied commands reported another series of small scattered clashes in which 207 enemy were killed, 22 of them by air strikes. The U.S. Command's communique listed one American killed, a helicopter crewman whose light observation craft was shot down Tuesday 50 miles northwest of Saigon. Another crewman was wounded.

House Approves Massive Boost In School Funds

WASHINGTON (AP) — In a halfway symbolic gesture, the House has defied the threat of a presidential veto to approve a $1.2 billion boost in temporary funds for federal education programs.

"This vote means that the House is determined that education will be properly funded," said Rep. Sidney R. Yates, R-Ill., as the amendment to an emergency appropriations resolution was approved 177-124 Tuesday.

The emergency resolution later will be replaced by the regular education appropriation bill, now before the Senate. But it is needed to fund programs which began July 1, start of the new fiscal year.

The House last summer approved a $1.2 billion hike in the regular appropriation, overriding the recommendations of the Appropriations Committee and President Nixon's budget.

Demos Say Licavoli Report 'Whitewash'

GOAL IS PASSED — Tom Elsea (right) campaign chairman, happily shows Dr. Robert Liggett that the 1969 Pickaway County Community Fund goal has been passed. The objective of the drive was $57,500. Collections now total $58,885 and all collecting agencies have not yet reported. Dr. Liggett, present vice chairman, will succeed Elsea as chairman.

Book On 'Cauldron Cookery' Arrives In Witching Season

By JEFF RADFORD Associated Press Writer

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — If witches beset you on Halloween, here's what to do:

Take three nails from a coffin and stick them into a sauce of butter and wintergreen. Say the witch's name when you place the sauce in a hidden spot where neither sunlight nor moonlight will penetrate.

Your witch will be sick for six months.

Handed down for generations—at least since the 15th century—this superstition has now been made public by a black-bearded professor who teaches the history of witchcraft and satanism at the University of Michigan.

Marcello Truzzi, son of a circus juggler, is a sociologist who hopes to cash in on the current national cookbook buying binge with a few medieval recipes of his own.

Just in time for Halloween, Truzzi has written "Cauldron Cookery," which reveals such tricks as how to become invisible and how to become a werewolf.

The werewolf recipe calls for an iron cooking pot into which must be dumped water, parsley, opium and saffron. You don't have to eat the glob—it's to attract the devil.

But you do have to rub your body with the fat of a freshly killed cat and put on a wolf's skin. Pretty soon "the great grey shape that makes men shiver" will supplant your own and even your best friends won't know you.

Here are some other formulas:

How to make a woman's hair fall out: Smear a lock of her hair with tar and paste made from water in a new trough that has reflected the moon in a cemetery and bury it in a drain or cesspool.

How to become invisible: Boil a cat ear in cow's milk, then put the ear over your thumb.

How to obtain someone's love: Place an egg in an antihill on

'69 Community Fund Drive Exceeds Goal

The 1969 Pickaway County Community Fund Drive has exceeded its goal of $57,500 it was announced today by Tom Elsea, chairman.

Collections to date are $58,885 and all sources of income have not yet reported contributions, Elsea said. He believes the final count may be over $60,000.

Elsea stated that people of Circleville and Pickaway County, the business and industrial community and the professional and special groups are to be highly commended for their support to the participating agencies.

"In my opinion, when the needs of our community are demonstrated and recognized and the administration of progress is effective, then the sacrifices and the generosity of this great community is shown by almost all," Elsea said.

HE congratulated the more than 200 volunteer workers, solicitors, captains, representatives, co-chairmen, chairmen and administrative assistants.

The representative agencies are the Red Cross, Salvation Army, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, YMCA, Well-Child Clinic, Mental Health Assn., Family Planning Assn. and pre Natal Clinic.

Pope Indicates 'Recognition' Of Autonomy

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI indicated today readiness to give "ample recognition" to local autonomy in the Roman Catholic Church, provided this does not conflict with the Church's over-all unity.

The Pope's remarks came two days after he formally closed the world synod of bishops, an event he said was aimed at bringing about "closer, more aware, better working communion" between him and his bishops.

On Monday, addressing the synod's final session, the Pope announced he would call general synods every two years—thus accepting one of the key proposals made by the 146-member body for the sharing of papal authority.

Speaking to thousands in his weekly general audience today in St. Peter's Basilica, the pontiff said "The universal character of the Church, along with its particular and subordinated local autonomies, must be given ample recognition."

GOP Leaders Deny Charge; Rhodes Silent

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Reaction was along party lines following the Ohio Highway Patrol's report Tuesday on the Thomas "Yonnie" Licavoli commutation case.

Democratic State Chairman Eugene P. O'Grady called the report a "superficial whitewash job."

John Andrews Republican chairman, said the report was "thorough and straightforward."

Republican Gov. James A. Rhodes, who ordered the patrol investigation, declined comment, other than to say he felt the report "speaks for itself."

Frazier Reams Jr. of Toledo, unsuccessful Democratic gubernatorial candidate three years ago, said he was not surprised by the report because it was prepared by "employees of the governor."

The patrol report concluded that there were no improper acts by any state official connected with the case. It said there was no evidence that any money was offered or accepted when the governor commuted the conviction.

Roundtown

NEAR perfect fall weather has speeded the harvest of a bumper corn crop in Pickaway County. Corn has been coming in at a faster rate than could be handled at Pickaway Grain. The elevator is filled to capacity and the overflow is being dumped in a huge pile.

ELECTION day is drawing near. There will be two state issues on the ballot, an election of village, city and township officials, board of education members, four bond issues, six tax levies, an initiative petition for a city ordinance establishing the number of hours police will work and a petition for election on the sale of beer in Darbyville. That's a lot for an "off-year" election.

Ohio Crashes Fatal To 8

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS One traffic smashup killing three persons and another costing two lives Tuesday night on the Delaware-Union County line head Ohio's latest traffic fatality report, listing at least eight victims.

TOLEDO — Ben Schlatter, 52, of Rt. 5, Paulding, and two passengers in his car, Richard Schlatter, 50, and Ruth Manz, 54, both of rural Paulding, were killed in a traffic collision involving three automobiles Tuesday night on U.S. 24 about three miles west of Waterville in Lucas County.

AKRON — Robert Lee Baker, 18, of Cuyahoga Falls, was killed and two other youths hurt Tuesday night when a car driven by Baker hit a pole at a Cuyahoga Falls street intersection.

Israeli Election Results Show Swing To The Right

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A swing to the right in Israel's national election Tuesday strengthened the nation's hawks and slightly weakened the position of Prime Minister Golda Meir's Labor coalition. But the vote represented overwhelming ratification of Mrs. Meir's uncompromising defiance of Israel's Arab foes and of the condemnations of the United Nations.

Israel's 71-year-old prime minister looked glum as she pored over election returns indicating that her coalition of four Labor parties would lose its majority in the 120-seat Knesset, or parliament.

Returns from more than half of the 3,474 precincts indicated Labor would win about 58 seats, which would be a loss of five. The right-wing opposition Gahal party appeared to be winning 25 seats for a gain of three. Minor parties were vying for the remaining seats.

The results are expected to cause no significant changes in the defense policies of Mrs. Meir's so-called National Unity government which contains members of all major factions including Gahal. But Gahal, having gained while Labor lost ground, may demand one or (Continued on Page 2)

President Asks Advice On Talk

Flood Of Memos Follows Request

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon has encouraged key administration officials, and experts to send him suggestions about his state of the Vietnam war policy speech.

Sources say the result has been literally dozens of memos outlining recommendations and proposals for the Nov. 3 TV-radio appearance. The memos range from peace-making to war-making to truce-making to the shape of the post-Vietnam world in Southeast Asia.

But officials warn against expectations of any world shaking pronouncements.

While saying it is possible some of the ideas may be included in the address, officials are worried the public may be expecting too much from the well-advised speech.

Speculation on what the President may or may not do, according to the official sources, has exceeded by far Nixon's latitude for action.

For example, it is highly unlikely Nixon would dump his support for the Saigon government as some antiwar elements have suggested or that he will declare a unilateral cease-fire as others have called for.

Nixon is expected to continue his support of the present Saigon regime and resist efforts for any coalition peace government such as the Viet Cong and North Vietnam have demanded. But the President could suggest a broadened base for the present government.

The idea of a unilateral cease-fire has been frowned upon by Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird. And when Senate Republican Leader Hugh Scott called for a cease-fire last week, the Pennsylvania senator received a call from the White House suggesting he clarify his stand to specify that the halt in fighting must have mutual agreement.

Rogers To Tell Senators Of Policy On MIRV Testing

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State William P. Rogers was invited before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee today in a session likely to influence considerably the congressional drive for a resolution urging U.S. initiatives to halt the testing of multiwarhead missiles.

A number of committee members are among 42 sponsors of the resolution introduced by Sen. Edward W. Brooke, R-Mass. It calls on President Nixon to take the lead in pressing for a U.S.-Soviet moratorium on tests of the Multiple Independently Targeted Re-entry Vehicle—MIRV.

Sources indicated Rogers will be pressed closely on administration objections to further action on the resolution, including a round of public hearings.

"The secretary would have to present a pretty compelling case" to halt the move for hearings, one source said.

Rogers said over the weekend a halt in MIRV production will be one of the subjects to be considered at U.S.-Soviet arms limitation talks scheduled to start with preliminary discussions Nov. 17 in Helsinki.

But the secretary cautioned that "the start of the talks themselves does not mean success."

Meanwhile, a top Senate Republican quoted Dr. Henry Kissinger, President Nixon's top foreign policy adviser, as being opposed to any congressional moves that might have the effect of limiting U.S. options at the arms limitation talks.

Sen. Gordon Allott of Colorado, chairman of the GOP Policy Committee, told reporters Kissinger said "any resolution by Congress which would attempt to halt our own investigation procedures would only result in damage to the United States." The apparent reference to the Brooke proposal came Tuesday at the weekly White House meeting of Republican congressional leaders.

The United States is considered ahead of the Soviets in MIRV development, with the first converted Poseidon submarines and Minuteman III land-based missiles expected to become operational late next year. The Soviets also are reportedly testing MIRVs.

Democratic Leader Blasts Ohio Assembly

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Legislature will be completely ignoring the pressing needs of the state if it has another "do-nothing session" next year, House Democratic Leader John C. McDonald, D-19 Newark, said Tuesday night.

"The only function of government is to provide service to its citizens," and an abbreviated duplication of the 1969 session "would not fulfill our responsibility," McDonald told the Dolly Madison Club here.

Find Pentagon OK'd Security Rating For Mafia Figure

By DONALD M. ROTHBERG Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pentagon security officials cleared a Pennsylvania contractor for access to secret information despite reports in police and congressional files linking the company to the Mafia.

Medico Industries Inc. of Pittston, Pa., which has received $12 million in government contracts since 1966, had a security clearance from Jan. 28, 1968, to June 20, 1968. The clearance was terminated at the company's request, a Pentagon source said, after security officials asked for additional information about company officers.

Pentagon records indicate Medico Industries has performed well on all its defense work, involving contracts with the Army, Navy and Air Force. It now is working on a $4 million contract to produce metal parts for 2.75 inch rocket warheads, used by U.S. forces in Vietnam, but this particular job does not require access to classified material.

Defense Department regulations require that the principal officers of a company be checked through FBI name and fingerprint files before the firm can be cleared for access to classified information.

If derogatory information is found, the Defense Industrial Security Command at Columbus, Ohio, determines if it is serious enough to warrant further investigation. Such a determination requires that the case be referred to a higher level for review, but no such action was taken when Medico's application was processed.

What sort of information was available on Medico Industries?

In 1964, a Senate subcommittee headed by Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., listed Medico Electric Motor Co., later renamed Medico Industries, as a place "frequently by" Russell A. Bufalino, whom it described as "one of the most ruthless and powerful leaders of the Mafia in the United States."

—William Medico, former president and now general manager of Medico Industries, was listed in the same report as among the "criminal associates" of Bufalino.

James A. Osticco, the firm's traffic manager, was present in 1957 when New York State Police broke up the Apalachin conference—a meeting of top Mafia figures from throughout the United States. Bufalino was listed by the McClellan committee as an arranger of and participant in the Apalachin meeting.

Bufalino and Osticco were later convicted in federal court of conspiracy to obstruct justice after they refused to tell authorities what went on at the conference. The convictions were overturned when an appeals court ruled that the government had failed to prove that a crime had been committed.

In 1964, the McClellan committee said the Sicilian-born Bufalino was active in narcotics trafficking, labor racketeering, and dealing in stolen jewels and furs.

Senate Group Turns To Tax Break For John Q. Citizen

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Finance Committee is taking up tax relief for individuals after weeks of struggling with more complex tax reform provisions.

Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., said he would push at today's session for an increase in the personal exemption on the income tax from the present $600 to $1,000.

This would cost the treasury about $12 billion and probably would provide greater tax relief than the panel would be willing to grant.

The present $600 exemption has been in effect for 21 years. Gore and a number of other senators argue it is completely inadequate in view of the rise in living costs.

Mission Board Holds Election

The Board of Trustees of the Circleville Community Mission met recently for its annual election of board members.

The board is composed of nine members plus the president of the Circleville Bible College who serves by virtue of his office.

Each serve a three year term with three being elected each year. Members elected to serve until October 1970 are Carl Zehner, Montford Kirkwood and William Lutz. Serving until 1971 are Charles Walters, Charles Wellman and Ted Koch. Newly elected members are Roy Heimbach, Delbert Ash and Charles Wellman.

Wellman is chairman of the board, Walters is vice chairman and Montford Kirkwood the treasurer.

Jim Murphy made a progress report of the mission's activities. He reported that attendance has shown a steady growth and that Girl and Boy Scout troops have been started as well as other community projects.

The mission financially handles about 50 per cent of its expenses. Some of the area churches contribute when the need arises.

Funds are currently needed to purchase uniforms for the scout troop members, for a new piano. Contributions may be sent to Kirkwood, whose address is 110 Collins Court, or to Rev. Donald Brown, at the Circleville Bible College.

The board has discussed for the past year the need for an addition to the present building. This would consist of a 12 foot addition to the front for a vestibule with restrooms and classrooms in the basement.

The chairman appointed a building committee of Charles Walters, William Lutz and Roy Heimbach to obtain rough plans and estimate of costs to be presented.

Italy Hit By Violence During Strike

ROME (AP) — Club-wielding strikers ran wild in the Fiat auto works of Turin and others set roadblocks afire in Naples today in a new outbreak of violence that spread tension across troubled Italy.

Metallurgical workers on strike against Fiat smashed windows of the company's office building with rocks, bottles and iron bolts in an effort to call clerks out on strike.

After shattering windows of cars owned by executives and office employees, they broke into a workshop of Fiat's big Mirafiori plant, smashed car bodies, and manhandled mechanics, police said. Later they stormed into the cafeteria and broke tables, chairs and windows and overturned food counters.

A series of 24-hour general strikes crippled half a dozen Italian cities.

Italy is in its seventh week of labor disorders, sparked by the rising cost of living.

City-wide general strikes were on in Naples, Trento, Ancona and Como, Asti, Ascoli Piceno, Macerata, Benevento, Mantova and Novara are scheduled to be hit Thursday. They are part of a calendar drawn up by the three largest unions to cover all cities and towns.

However, the Nixon administration strongly opposes any increase in the exemption.

Gore said his plan would be to substitute a boost in the exemption for two features of the House-passed bill—a low income allowance designed to knock millions of poverty-level families off the tax rolls and a cut in income tax rates across the board for all individuals.

These two features would provide $7.2 billion of the $9.2 billion of tax relief in the House version of the bill.

The House measure would grant $2.4 billion more in relief in addition to the $6.8 billion it gains through tax reform. A number of senators have contended their branch should try to narrow this gap, or at least not increase it.

But Finance Chairman Russell B. Long, D-La., has said he would not be surprised if the Senate boosts the tax relief.

Long's committee appears well on its way toward meeting its goal of completing work on the mammoth tax bill by its Friday deadline.

A substantial part of the House reform package has been retained, but the Senate committee has made many changes in it.

The panel added a provision Tuesday which the Treasury said would correct a substantial abuse.

This would put close limits on amounts professional men, chiefly doctors, can put into tax-free pension contributions to corporate pension plans for their benefit.

But the committee softened greatly one House provision aimed at abuses by operators of tax-exempt private foundations.

The House voted to require such foundations to get rid of all but 20 per cent of a corporation's stock held by it and related family members.

The Senate Committee raised this to 50 per cent in the case of all existing foundations.

According To Boyle

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Remarks that teen-agers get tired of hearing:

"When I was your age, I—"
"Frankly, I'm not worried about closing the generation gap—I'd just as soon widen it."

"I'll treat you like a grown-up, Susie Jane, when you start acting like a grown-up."

"No daughter of mine is going to school in a miniskirt that short. Why, you couldn't get by with that outfit in a night club chorus line."

"Aren't you really a bit ashamed, Christopher, to hit me up for $6 to buy a basketball ticket? Why, when I was in high school that's more than I spent on entertainment in a whole month."

"If you teen-agers are so set on being different, why is it that you all dress and act so much alike it's hard to tell you apart?"

"When I was your age, I—"
"I'm tired of hearing you two argue whose turn it is to take out the garbage. Both of you take it out."

"Why, no, Christopher, I don't see any objection to your having a car of your own on your 17th birthday. What are your plans for earning the money to buy one?"

"Don't ask me—ask your father."

"Don't ask me—ask your mother."

"Don't do as I do. Do as I tell you."

"When I was your age, I—"
"That's enough lip out of you, young lady. If you think you're too big to spank, you're greatly mistaken."

"Just tell me one thing, Christopher. How can you possibly study your English lesson lying upside down in a chair with your feet in the air and the light shining on the back of the book instead of on the pages?"

"You know the rules as well as I do—no television on school nights. I know there's a good movie on, Susie Jane, but I'll watch it while you go do your homework, and I'll tell you tomorrow how it came out."

"No, this one is my daughter, Susie Jane. That one over there with the long hair is my son, Christopher."

"Why do you even want to be out after midnight? What happens after midnight that is so interesting?"

"When I was your age, I—"

The Business World

By JOHN CUNIFF

NEW YORK (AP) — This is the time of year when everyone but economists lose their week-ends to football spectatorship, awakening on Monday morning to a horrible accounting of vanished time and chores undone.

And why not the economists? Perhaps their human tendencies are to relax into the same stupor as others. But they can't; they're too busy peering into the future; they lose their fall weekends to the following year.

From now until December and even after that, there will emanate from the offices of academic, private, industrial and government economists a series of projections of things to come—not just for next year, but for the entire 1970s.

Early returns show almost unqualified optimism about a bigger America during the decade of the 70s. Optimism, of course, has almost always been the rule; back in 1929, for instance, most economists looked forward to the thrilling 30s.

Reservations are being expressed about the quality of life, for economists as well as others are acutely aware of the need for solving the problems of the cities and relieving social tensions.

Because of this, many economists believe that government involvement will grow during the decade of the 1970s—in transportation, medicine, urban renewal, education, pollution control.

In quantity, however, there appears little doubt about a bigger America, one of the chief reasons being the fact that, despite all its accomplishments over the past 200 years, the United States is still very young.

This youthful population, the productivity of American workers and the feeling that depressions are a thing of the past are among the most frequently cited as reasons for believing the 70s will be affluent.

The vigor of youth is already evident in a thousand ways, but economists aren't all convinced that the spirit will be translated into production, which is the basis of America's past financial comfort.

Reading between the lines of projections made to date, a fear exists that despite youth's social change, the same fervor might not apply to production goals. This, they fear, could be critical.

If any doubt exists about the past effectiveness of the American worker, or the power of the American production machinery, it is eliminated when U.S. output is compared with that in other nations.

A couple of years ago the Chamber of Commerce produced a chart that showed that with one hour's pay the American factory worker could buy more of almost anything than his counterpart in other nations.

Although there is some doubt about the economy's ability to maintain this productivity during the 1970s, there seems to be little doubt among economists about the ability of a prudent government to forestall a major depression.

Tijuana Brass

By GENE HANDSAKER

(For Bob Thomas)

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "This is a great time to be in music; anything goes. Why, you can take a country music outfit, combine them with the funkiest of rock combos, throw in a sitar and add a couple of guys hitting rocks together—and you just might come up with a hit."

The man talking was 34-year-old Herb Alpert, who knows the ways of success in today's music market. Proof: The first 13 of his Tijuana Brass albums have all collected gold records, meaning they have racked up at least a million dollars in sales.

The 14th is a safe bet to do the same. It is called "The Brass Are Coming"—Although a singular attraction, he considers the band to be plural. By no coincidence whatsoever, Herb Alpert and the Tijuana Brass are starring tonight in an NBC special, "The Brass Are Coming."

How does this special differ from the two that have gone before? "More music," he said. "The reviewers who criticized the other shows commented that there wasn't enough music. This time they won't be able to say that."

Alpert filmed the show all over—at the beach, in the streets, on the sound stage at his own studio, built by Charlie Chaplin in his heyday and now the haven of Alpert's A&M enterprises.

Alpert has compounded his success into immense holdings. How much did he earn last year?

"I don't know," he replied. "Well, I do know, but I don't want to talk about it. Too much has been made of it already. I want my son to be able to bicycle down the street without my having to worry what might happen to him."

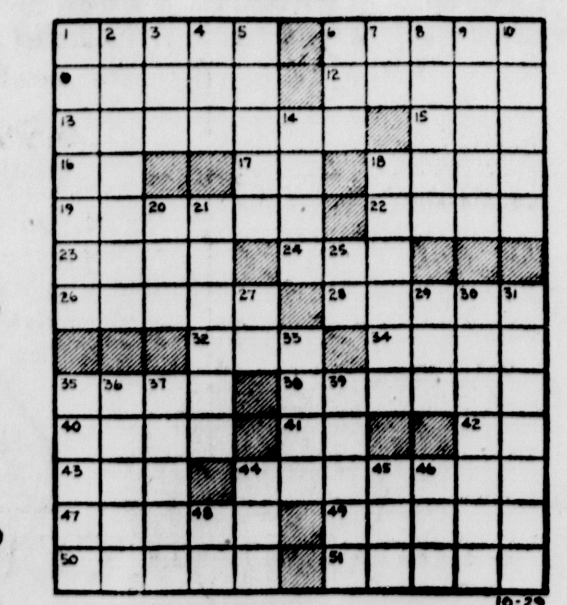

Alpert has managed to retain much of his immense income while other big earners have failed. The reason is that he has controlled his enterprise from the beginning, publishing his own music and releasing his own records, along with those of other artists. He attributes this to his beginnings in the music business.

"I started out as a song writer," he recalled. "Had a couple of hits, too. One of my contacts was Gogi Grant, for whom I made a demonstration record of one of my songs. A fellow at RCA liked my version, and I was signed to a singer's contract. I did some singles, but nothing happened. Two years at RCA convinced me that I wasn't cut out to be a small cog in a big organization."

"Hello, Harold... guess what?"

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

CHARLES McHARRY explains how you can win some easy money without stirring from your chair. Bet a friend even money that you can travel by rail from the Atlantic coast clear to the Pacific for less than two dollars. That's the cost of a ticket on the railroad that runs alongside the Panama Canal.

Obviously destined to be a four-star general some day, a young recruit was driving a bachelor major one afternoon when the latter spotted a singularly beautiful girl walking on the sidewalk headed in the opposite direction. "Get this car turned around on the double," barked the major—a man of action. "Yes, sir," snapped the recruit, then promptly stalled his motor. By the time he got it started again, the girl was out of sight. "Soldier," growled the frustrated major, "in an emergency you obviously would be a total loss."

"No, I wouldn't, sir," disputed the recruit. "That happened to my girl."

Two out-of-towners were walking along the Hudson River in New York. One pointed to a new freighter in port and said, "See that trim looking ship taking on cargo? It's Israeli. That's funny," puzzled the other. "It doesn't look Jewish!"

Speaking Of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

One of our children was born with a deformity of his right arm. He is now five years old, the youngest of three children. My husband and I have a tendency to favor this boy and already we feel that he is taking advantage of our overindulgence. What suggestions do you have to prevent later psychological problems?

Mrs. T. U., Arizona
Dear Mrs. U.: It is almost impossible for sensitive parents to avoid giving special attention and devotion to one of their children with a physical handicap. One of the major reasons may be a sense of guilt some mothers feel because they may believe they were responsible for this condition. Of course this is absurd and has no basis in fact.

It may be difficult but it is essential that the child with any handicap be treated exactly as the other members of the family. If this is not done it only emphasizes to the child that he is different and that he is separated from the other children.

A realistic attitude toward this handicap will help him learn that there is nothing about it to be ashamed of. It will also help him make whatever adjustments necessary to take an active role in family life. Later this will be of great advantage to him in school, college, business and community life.

If he is overprotected now, he must necessarily demand it later on and, if it is not forthcoming from sources outside the home, he may develop frustrations and personality defects that will hamper him. All children develop a greater sense of security when limits are established for them. The handicapped child needs this kind of security rather than overindulgence.

Parents who help the child to face the real aspects of his problem can make an important contribution to his eventual welfare. You can avoid a great deal of future difficulty if you can impress upon your child that he has the same rights and, therefore, the same responsibilities as the other children in the family. It is amazing how many handicapped people can in this way grow to be mature adults without great psychological problems.

Before going to Europe I was given an injection for smallpox. I had a terrible reaction and I believe that I was given it badly. Should the arm have been covered when I was vaccinated?

Mr. H. R., Maine

Dear Mr. R.: I hope it does not come as a great shock to you that your reaction to the smallpox vaccine is entirely your own reaction. The doctor had nothing to do with the severity of your reaction. Any severe after effect simply means that you did not have a normal defense against smallpox and that you were in need of a vaccination.

The site of the needlescratching is left uncovered. When a pox forms, only then, it is loosely covered, to prevent irritation.

Trusses and mechanical gimmicks for hernias should not be used without a doctor's advice.

Ethnic Vote In New York

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

Surprises everywhere. The recent Newsweek report on the "troubled American" made much of the fact that this country was in the grip of a "new Populism." A policeman, Charles Stenvig, has become mayor of Minneapolis by campaigning for law and order in behalf of the common man; in Boston, Louise Day Hicks almost won the City Hall by being against school busing and now, as a candidate for City Council, is more popular than ever; in Los Angeles, Mayor Sam Yorty upset the pollsters by promising to do a better job of crime elimination than his Negro opponent. But, against the "new Populism," one must reckon with the city election in Atlanta, Georgia, in which Sam Massell Jr., a liberal Democrat and a Jew, garnered enough Negro votes to beat a moderate Republican. Incidentally, Atlanta had already provided itself with a Negro Vice Mayor to go with a Jewish Mayor, which means that old prejudices have taken a bad beating in one southern metropolis.

What does this portend for the rest of the country? Are the swings becoming so volatile that no predictions can be made with any certainty? Or is it simply that "Atlanta is not Georgia," or that the South is forgetting its old problems at the very time the North is inheriting them? Or, to move into still another field of conjecture, is the Atlanta vote an anti-establishment phenomenon (Sam Massell campaigned against the rich men in "their clubs")? If so, this would make Massell's emergence Populism of a kind, even though it is not the same sort of Populism that supports Louise Hicks in Boston and Sam Yorty in Los Angeles.

In New York City, which, as they say, "is not America," the private polling swings wildly. A Republican - Conservative poll, resulting from a "representative" sampling of 2,000, shows John Marchi, the Republican - Conservative mayoral candidate, leading, with 34 per cent of the vote, but with Mario Procaccino, the Democratic candidate, just on his heels with 33 per cent and incumbent Mayor John Lindsay, the Liberal, with 32 per cent.

The first round of the New York Daily News straw poll tells a different story: Lindsay is projected as being well ahead of Procaccino, with Marchi bringing up the rear. But the Lindsay front-running figure of 44 per cent is still not half of the total. "Populism," as represented by the "ethnics" that veer away from the Lindsay "Establishment," is still in the lead, even though Lindsay may win in the three-corner race.

The New York "myth," as the Republican-Conservatives put it, is that "if you can't stand one, you've got to vote for the other" — meaning that New York City hatreds dictate a choice between Lindsay and Procaccino. But this "ain't necessarily so." If some of the hate feelings can be dimmed down before election day, John Marchi, as the coolest and most reasonable - sounding candidate, must benefit.

But how can the undue stress on the ethnic issues be taken out of the campaign in time to benefit Marchi? The ethnic numbers game will be played to the end. The experts will keep on talking about the Jewish "swing vote," the Irish will be subject to a daily group psychoanalysis that tries to push them into arbitrary categories bearing such labels as "Tammany hack" and "right-wing reactionary," the Puerto Ricans will be lumped with the Negroes as one great slum bloc. In the days when we were hoping that the teaching of high school civics and stress on the English language as a "binder" would take racial animosities out of politics, it would have been considered shameful to put ethnic considerations above everything else in appealing for votes, or even in writing about city campaigns. But those naive days are apparently gone forever.

The Jewish-Negro confrontation came into the New York campaign as a result of alleged discrimination against Jewish teachers in the fight over black-power control of the Ocean-Hill Brownsville schools. Lindsay, who incurred the wrath of the teachers at the time, has tried to make it up to them ever since. What is lost sight of in the arguments pro and con is that Marchi, in fighting for a compromise bill in Albany that would permit local control of educational matters without robbing any group of teachers of trade union protection, might deserve support precisely because he was never one for settling problems on ethnic terms.

This column has been for Marchi because he is intelligent, not because he is the voice of any ethnic bloc. But intelligence will win in New York only if people go back to voting as individual, which at this time may be too much to expect.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

I am a resident of the Teays Valley School District. One of the main reasons I chose to live here is because I feel this is the best place to properly raise a family. We have wonderful clean fresh air. We have fine churches and a good christian attitude among our people.

Fortunately we are not directly affected by the large numbers of groups set at disturbing the peace or causing unrest among the world today. The active groups here are all working toward making it a better place to live each day.

We do not have any large industry or any scenic tourist attraction to keep our small society together. Basically all we have are our own families, our churches and our schools. These things alone hold our property values up and are the basis for our local economy.

Our school enrollment is growing by about 100 students per year. However, the schools are overcrowded. All of us will be asked this year to approve a bond issue to build a new middle school to house grades six, seven and eight. It is important that our children receive a good education. This is our foundation for the future.

These children are growing up in a highly competitive world. They must be educated so they can help themselves and the entire community to move forward. This will protect our property values here in the school district. No one wants to buy in a school district that is not progressive. I am sure that none of us would want our property values to go down simply because we lived in a receding school district.

For these reasons I have volunteered to be chairman of the citizens committee FOR the school bond issue on the Nov. 4 ballot. I feel I owe my children the opportunities of a good school system. I want them to be able to attend school in a proper sized classroom so that the teacher can really do a good job. I do not want to see temporary classrooms or half-day sessions or worse. I will vote YES on the school bond issue question and I urge everyone to do the same.

OCTOBER, 1949
20 YEARS AGO

Associate professor of education at Bowling Green University, Martha Gesling, visited Circleville schools to speak to faculty members of new trends in the teaching field.

The Circleville Garden Club, in competition with 500 clubs in the state, won a plaque for their community beautification project, the planting in front of Memorial Hall. Present at the formal dedication were 25 speakers from garden clubs and other organizations all over Ohio.

James Shea, local veterans service officer, announced that $568,796 in bonus claims had been paid to county veterans.

John Neuding, chief of the city service department, announced that his men had erected a 50-foot wire fence on the road side of the city dump and asked that no rubbish be dumped over the fence. The service department hoped to eliminate some of the smoke and smog that emanated from the dump causing a traffic hazard on the highway adjoining the dump.

Circleville and Martins Ferry were the only two grid teams in Ohio boasting unbeaten records since 1947. Circleville had a total of 14 straight wins.

One of Circleville's last remaining landmarks was torn down. The frame structure, located on E. Franklin St., owned by Walter Dearth, had housed an ice cream parlor, two restaurants, a cafe and several different Chinese laundries. The land was to be leased as a parking lot to the Harden-Stevenson Co.

An abrasive highway material was smoothed onto two dangerous curves on Route 23 north of Circleville in an effort to check accidents. A compound of silica and sand, left over from a paving job last summer was spread over the curve at Little Walnut and the curve just south of Little Walnut. The material was designed to eliminate slips and skids in rainy or snowy weather.

Robert Phillips, Circleville, was pledged to the Beta Theta Pi fraternity and Hewitt Harmon of Pickaway Twp., pledged to the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity at Ohio State University.

"No Parking" signs were erected on North Court from Pleasant St. to the corporation limits.

The Junior Class of Jackson Twp. presented the play, "Feudin' in the Hills" at the high school auditorium.

Two brothers of near Amanda, age 13 and 11, were held in Lancaster for auto larceny. The car, owned by Paul Dudgeon, Stoutsville, was taken by the boys in Pickaway County.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kober, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Roundhouse, all of Circleville, and Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Bolender, formerly of Pickaway County, celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversaries.

City Council passed an ordinance decreeing that no water mains might be installed and connected to the city water system by anyone but the water department or persons authorized by the department.

Seven cottages at the Stoutsville campground were destroyed and three others damaged when a fire, started by burning leaves, threatened the entire 100 build g layout.

Stiffler's held their final close-out sale.

Miss Carol Hutchinson, Steven L. Ross Are Wed

MRS. STEVEN LAWRENCE ROSS

Arrangements of golden gladiolus and pompon mums adorned the altar of Zion United Methodist Church in Ashville, for the wedding of Miss Carol Ann Hutchinson and Steven Lawrence Ross.

The Rev. John Morgan performed the double ring ceremony 6 p.m. Sept. 27, for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Hutchinson and the son of Mr. and Mrs. McKinley Ross, Route 1, Lockbourne.

Given in marriage by her father and mother, the bride selected for her wedding a gown of white lace. The bodice featured a square neckline and long fitted sleeves. The bouffant skirt was paneled at the sides with tiers of lace and a chapel length train flowed gracefully from the waist. She carried a cascade arrangement of large white mums and gold pompon mums accented with an orange velvet bow and streamers. Her bouffant veil of illusion was held by a cluster of white satin petals and she wore a pearl pendant necklace, a gift of the groom.

Mrs. Kenneth Haddox, served her sister as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Pamela Hutchinson, Miss Barb Welsh and Miss Nancy Lemaster. They were attired in floor length gowns of velvet featuring empire waists with the matron of honor in green and the other attendants in gold. They carried colonial bouquets of gold and bronze pompon mums accented with brown velvet ribbon.

Performing the duties of best man was Clyde Wilson, while ushers were Robert Welsh and Teddy Ross, brother of the groom.

Mrs. Hutchinson was attired in a royal blue dress trimmed in white lace and beige accessories. Mrs. Ross wore a dark blue dress with black accessories. The corsages worn by the mothers were of white carnations with light blue backing accented their dresses.

A reception at the church immediately followed the ceremony. Centering the bride's table was a four tiered cake encircled with yellow flowers and gold colored leaves. Hostesses were Mrs. Ronnie Neff, Mrs. James Wheeler and Mrs. Charles McNeal. Miss Janet Cline presided at the guest register.

The new Mrs. Ross is a graduate of Teays Valley High School and is employed as a clerk-typist for the State of Ohio.

Mr. Ross, also a graduate of Teays Valley High School, is employed by Will W. Fisher and Son, Ashville.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were from Columbus, Circleville, Stoutsville, Darbyville, Laurelville, Adelphi and Middletown.

The couple presently resides in Ashville.

Berger Hospital Guild 30 made plans to assist with the General Guild Bazaar on Nov. 21, when they met recently in the home of Mrs. James Arnold, Route 4. Plans were also completed for a Christmas Party scheduled for Dec. 18.

The remainder of the evening was spent playing cards. Prizes were won by Mrs. Jerry Collins, Mrs. Lawrence McKenzie, and Mrs. Harry Wright, who also won the chance gift.

Others present were Mrs. Fred Dudleson, Mrs. Frank Gifford, Mrs. Hoyt Timmens, Mrs. Jessie Wilson, Mrs. Charles Rittinger, Mrs. David Dumm, Miss Barbara McKenzie, Mrs. Glenn Kerns and a guest, Mrs. Paul Bower.

Laird Says U.S. Must Reduce Role As World Policeman

STEVENS POINT, Wis. (AP) — Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird says the Nixon administration is reviewing foreign commitments with an eye to cutting back America's role as "world policeman."

Addressing a youth leadership conference he helped organize as a Wisconsin congressman, Laird said Monday the executive branch alone is not responsible for the web of alliances in which the United States is a central figure.

It was Congress, specifically the Senate, which approved four multilateral and four bilateral treaties, he said, adding:

"This basic policy review may cause us to go back to Congress and ask it to review its approval of these various vast commitments."

Laird's audience at Wisconsin State University, one of several stops during a quick-paced, two-day visit to his home state, included 40 antiwar demonstrators demanding swifter U.S. withdrawal from Vietnam. Most of the 250 high school students at the conference were friendly, however.

Laird said the eight treaties now under review by the National Security Council would, by military estimate, require an annual defense budget of $109 billion.

"We cannot spend that amount of money," he said. "We can spend at the rate of between $74 billion and $78 billion in fiscal year 1970. So we must tailor our commitments to meet what we can do."

Laird said he was seeking a "confrontation of ideas" with young people, and he was put to the test by one girl who asked:

"Mister Secretary, a rough estimate states that at the present rate of withdrawal of American forces from Vietnam, 14,000 additional American men will die in Vietnam before the war ends. Can these deaths and the deaths of 30,000 other men be justified in the name of U.S. security?"

Laird replied the administration is removing combat forces from Vietnam "as rapidly as we possibly can," with two increments totaling 60,000 men already on their way out. Then, becoming rather philosophical, he added:

"I want you to know that I will judge whether I have been a success as Secretary of Defense (according to) whether the war is ended and whether these deaths can be stopped."

"There will be other with-

Bogus Money Flows In Ohio

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Southwestern Ohio area—especially Dayton—has been a target of persons passing counterfeit $5, $10, $20 and $100 bills during recent weeks.

In issuing a warning to area residents Tuesday, the Secret Service here said that bogus bills have been passed in Cincinnati, Dayton, Portsmouth, Middletown and Springfield. About $1,000 of the money was passed in Dayton last week.

Special Agent James Clem said that the bills bear the serial number 1963A and the Cleveland Federal Reserve seal and letter D.

Ohio Air Force Enlistee Is Killed

SUNNYVALE, Calif. (AP) —Robert Leslie Brady, 24, an Air Force enlistee man from Wilmet, Ohio, was killed Monday night by the closing bomb bay doors of a P3 Orion plane on which he was working at Moffett Naval Air Station.

The Navy said his parents were listed as Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. Freeman of Wilmet.

Indict Marion Youth In Guard's Slaying

LANCASTER, Ohio (AP) — Roger Craft, 16, of Marion was indicted by the grand jury Tuesday on a first-degree murder charge in the fatal shooting of a guard at the Fairfield School for Boys. Arraignment has been set for Nov. 13.

Craft and another youth escaped from the reformatory May 23, the day before guard Charles Marion, 23, of Amanda, was shot in a nearby woods.

Ohio Demos May Patch Differences

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — "I kind of like the guy," Robert E. Sweeney of Cleveland said Tuesday about Eugene P. O'Grady.

Sweeney's attitude toward the Ohio Democratic Party chairman, whom he opposed for the post a couple of years ago, is the type of "mutual admiration" party leaders want to instill within their ranks.

Both Sweeney and O'Grady suggested this week that a party "harmony" meeting be held to try to heal old political wounds.

Sweeney, a former congressional candidate, suggested that the meeting include candidates for state offices.

Purpose of the meeting, he said, would be to see that candidates conduct themselves so that any pre-primary political fights within the party could be straightened out quickly after the May election.

O'Grady said he met recently Ohio Democrats in Congress and told them he would write letters to all possible candidates and invite them to a meeting in Columbus soon.

He said the party doesn't have the funds to go through an expensive brutal campaign and emerge strong enough to wage a proper campaign for the general election.

Tire Company Settles Lawsuit

WASHINGTON (AP) — General Tire and Rubber Co. of Akron, Ohio, has agreed to pay $50,000 in settlement of civil claims brought against the company for alleged violation of federal safety standards. Transportation Secretary John Volpe announced Tuesday.

Volpe said the company insisted it had not violated provisions of the Motor Vehicle Safety Act of 1966 but felt the settlement was the most expedient and inexpensive means of closing the case.

In a letter to Federal Highway Administrator Francis C. Turner, the firm said it recognizes that extensive litigation would be both time consuming and expensive and that the best interest of the company will be served by compromising the matter on a reasonable basis.

Logan Elm School Has Run Out Of Class Room Space

EDITOR'S NOTE: The Logan Elm Board of Education has prepared the following article describing the proposed Seventh and Eighth Grade Exchange Building and detailing the reasons for its need. Logan Elm School District voters will have a $1,500,000 bond issue on the Nov. 4 ballot to finance the building.

After careful study the Logan Elm Board of Education feels that an additional building on the existing high school site is the most reasonable approach to relieving the overcrowdedness in the three elementary schools.

Derby

896-2462

There was a very large turnout at the Halloween party which was held at the Derby Methodist Church Sunday night and sponsored by the members of Derby Youth Fellowship. Among those present were members of Five Points and Williamsport MYF groups.

On Thursday Miss Maude Blain passed away in a Columbus hospital after an extended illness and several years in a rest home. Miss Blain was a life long resident of Derby and was preceded in death by her brother Harry about ten years ago. She was very well liked and leaves many friends here. She was 88 at the time of her death.

Last Thursday a birthday party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Musselman for daughter Tanya Jo. Helping her celebrate her seventh birthday were Matt, Mark and Mitch Musselman, Theresa and Scott Musselman, Beverly Musselman, Debbie Joy and Mike Wardell, Sandy Stover, Beth and Vondra Hoop; also sitting in on the festivities were Mrs. Shirley Wardell, Mrs. Bertie Musselman and neighbors Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mattheas, who from all reports, enjoyed it as much as the small fry!

Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Charles Nance were her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Nance of Columbus. Afternoon callers were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Woods of Washington C. H.

Mrs. Larry Rogers was able to come home from Mt. Carmel Hospital recently and is improving, but slowly.

Friday night guests of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Sweet were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Brown of Ashville. Sunday callers were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schaefer of Springfield.

Birthday greetings to Marvene Furniss, Debbie Johnson, John Bayes, all on Oct. 26; Mrs. Mildred Mouser, Jean Barthen, Charles Towler, Oct. 29; Kenneth Spradlin, John Valone, Betty Riddle and Tom Davis, Nov. 1.

'Gentle Ben' Gets Invitation

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Gentle Ben, the lovable bear on a television network series, has been invited to sip cocktails and mix with nationally known personalities at a special fete in Fort Lauderdale.

"Dear Gentle," starts a letter of invitation from Gov. Claude Kirk, who asked him to a Nov. 5 "celebrity party" sponsored by the Florida Council of 100.

"So that you will bear-up and have a honey of a time, cocktails and fancy hors d'oeuvres will be served from 6:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m.," the governor's letter said.

For the past three years the board has put every suitable storeroom, auditorium and basement room into use as a classroom. All potential space for elementary classrooms has been exhausted.

It must be understood that the building is an educational tool. It is a useful tool only if it facilitates the educational program. Since school programs change to keep up with our changing society, a building must be designed to allow for these changes; buildings must be flexible.

A modern school plan must include areas to accommodate team teaching, large and small group instruction, non-graded instruction, modular scheduling, extensive use of audio-visual aids, and instructional materials center.

The proposed plan for Logan Elm's Seventh and Eighth Grade Exchange Building has been designed in such a way that it will accommodate these present and future educational programs. Provisions have also been made for future additions as required.

Superintendent John Henn's office will be open 7 to 9 p.m. Wednesday to answer questions relating to the bond issue.

Of the $1,500,000 bond issue a small portion of the funds must be used to expand the present library facilities by enclosing the court area and to convert for physical education use, the music area which is located on the stage.

The new building will include facilities to accommodate all kindergarten, seventh and eighth grades, and special education students in the district. It will be referred to as the exchange building since fine arts, physical education, music and instructional materials areas will also be used by students in grades nine through 12. In addition, the seventh and eighth grade programs will be strengthened by an opportunity to share industrial arts and home economics facilities with the high school.

The new structure has been planned for an enrollment of 400 students in grades seven and eight. The kindergarten and special education areas are adequate, according to present projected growth studies, to take care of enrollment for a period of five years.

Major areas for seventh and eighth grade programs are language arts, mathematics, social studies and science allowing for complete departmentalization of classes with provisions in each subject field for large and small group instruction.

As seventh and eighth grade students must have a gymnasium in order to participate in a complete physical education program and the high school gym is utilized at all times, a gymnasium had to be included in the building plans. Plans are to have the exchange building gymnasium constructed with seating for 2,000.

An education research center is located in the center of the four seventh and eighth grade program areas. Conference rooms, individual study spaces and tape listening areas, are included.

The kindergarten and special education areas (two classrooms each) have been located at the west end of the building, removed from the other education areas, to allow for separate bus loading areas and play areas.

The fine arts area provides facilities for one classroom for grades 9-12 and one for grades 7-8 with common supplies and workroom, located between.

The music area includes a choral room, instrumental room, practice rooms and Little Theater (capacity 150).

The food service area has been planned with the dining area seating 200, located in the large vestibule outside the gymnasium. This means it will also serve as an area for people to congregate at athletic contests and as a place for student parties and dances and community meetings.

Separating the kindergarten and special education areas from the other educational areas is the administrative office area which includes offices of the principal, superintendent, clerk, and board of education in addition to conference and waiting rooms.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Dad, Keep Out Of Son's Hair!

DEAR ABBY: How can my husband tactfully tell his father that he doesn't want anymore homemade haircuts? Due to the rising cost of haircuts, my husband and his father have had a reciprocal hair cutting arrangement.

My husband has been putting up with "bowl jobs" hoping his father would notice and heed his suggestion of going back to a professional barber, but it hasn't worked out that way.

We are now sorry we ever heard of "HOME BARBER KITS" and would be more than willing to pay the going price for a decent haircut. Please help us. My husband doesn't want to hurt his father's feelings, but he just can't take any more home barbering.

NO NAME, PLEASE
DEAR NO NAME: It's mighty sweet of your husband to be so considerate of his father's feelings, but there is a solution to his problem. He must say, "Look, Pa, you're a wonderful father, but a lousy barber. Let's stay out of each other's hair from now on. The barbers have to live, too."

DEAR ABBY: Our marriage is in serious trouble. Shortly after I married, I found out that my husband lived with a friend with whom he had a homosexual relationship. I didn't forgive OR forget, even though he assured me that it would never happen again.

I worried myself sick every time he went out or came home late from work. We saw counselors, doctors, and a priest who said little other than it was something that he would have to fight all his life—like alcohol. That didn't comfort me much. Anyway, I don't think he has any more such "affairs," but he doesn't want much to do with me either. Bathing, perfuming, and looking sexy doesn't do a thing. After 11 years of practically no sex life I have been tempted to go out with other men, but that would be a terrible thing to do to my two children. My marriage is messed up enough already. Please give me some advice. Maybe some of your readers know more about this subject than I do. Sign me...

"TROUBLED OUT WEST"
DEAR TROUBLED: My authorities on this subject tell me that homosexuality is "learned," and can be "unlearned." IF (and this is a big "IF") the patient is properly motivated, which most of them are not.

Your husband is bi-sexual which need not preclude him from being a good husband. Your words, "I didn't forgive or forget" leads me to suspect that your unforgiving attitude shows, and is driving your husband away.

Your only hope is to insist that he see a psychiatrist; otherwise your marriage doesn't have a very rosy future.

DEAR ABBY: My Alvin and I haven't been married very long and now he has asked me for a once a week night "out" with the "boys." I will let him go if you say it is all right, Abby, but I wonder if maybe it could be dangerous.

ALVIN'S BETTY
DEAR BETTY: There is nothing dangerous about it as long as the "boys" ARE boys.

DEAR ABBY: This is for the lady who wrote to you about the engineer's wife who was so lazy that she left her dirty dishes in the oven. Thanks a million for the idea! I'd been leaving mine right out in the open for everyone to see until I read that.

ANOTHER ENGINEER'S WIFE
Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069, and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Government Plans Fight On Segregation

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration, with troubles enough already over school desegregation, is trying to erase any impression it condones racial discrimination in the Model Cities urban aid program.

The Model Cities problem developed when the administrator of the concentrated renewal program told a reporter the government would not veto a neighborhood wish to rebuild on an all-black or all-white basis.

"We feel these are local decisions," said the administrator, Floyd H. Hyde, an assistant secretary of Housing and Urban Development. "As long as we are satisfied that the people have had freedom of choice and want to go that route, then we don't plan to interfere."

Hyde has since fired off a clarifying memo to all HUD regional offices after feeling pressure from government civil rights officials.

The memo reads in part: "Any local proposal designed to accomplish segregation through discriminatory action would be in violation of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, and would be rejected by this administration."

"In addition, whenever a city has, or should have, identified discrimination as one of its problem areas, we are determined that its program will adequately and comprehensively deal with this problem in a meaningful way."

But some government civil rights officials remain concerned about Hyde's statement in the clarifying memo that the administration "has not established a policy to use the Model Cities program as an affirmative tool to achieve the integration of a model neighborhood."

The Model Cities program is an effort to funnel all the renewal federal-local dollars can buy into target slum neighborhoods. The idea is to attack all the causes of poverty and blight within a slum through one integrated plan.

Some 150 communities in 45 states, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico are participating in the program authorized by Congress in 1966. The administration plans to spend $300 billion on it this year.

Service Station Now Fire Station

URBANA, Ohio (AP) — Because the state closed a bridge Urbana is moving a fire station.

Firemen are sprucing up an abandoned gasoline service station and hope to have it ready for occupancy next week.

The bridge ordered closed by the state is part of a main city artery across railroad tracks which run through center of the city.

50th Anniversary Of 'Dry' America Recalls Big Flop

NEW YORK (AP) — The Volstead Act became the law of the land 50 years ago Tuesday. Officially the country went dry. Actually, national prohibition ushered in the wettest era in the nation's history, the Roaring 20s.

"A great social and economic experiment, noble in nature and far reaching in purpose," Herbert Hoover called the National Prohibition Act in 1928, the year he was elected president.

But by then prohibition was a colossal flop, noble or otherwise. The speakeasy was the social center of the nation—where there had been 15,000 preprohibition saloons in New York, there were 32,000 speakeasies. Home brew and bathtub gin were symbols of a nation's defiance of the law. The hip flask was as common on a man's person as his billfold.

The national crime syndicate, as Americans know it today, came into being to cater to the unslakable thirst of prohibition-beset citizens.

Not until World War I did prohibition evolve on a national scale. Some critics claimed it was pushed through only because of the absence in the armed forces of so many young Americans.

The 18th amendment to the Constitution was adopted Jan. 16, 1919, to become effective one year later. It outlawed the transport, possession or sale of alcoholic beverages throughout the nation.

At that time, prohibition already was in effect in 33 of the 48 states, and Alaska, Puerto Rico, Hawaii and the District of Columbia. Of the approximately 105 million Americans, 63.3 per cent were forbidden alcohol.

Rep. Andrew Volstead of Minnesota was the sponsor of the National Prohibition Act which defined intoxicating liquor as any beverage containing

"one half of one per centum or more of alcohol by volume."

The Volstead Act was intended to dry up the country until the 18th amendment became effective. President Woodrow Wilson vetoed it Oct. 27, 1919, but the House overrode him the same day. The Senate followed suit on Oct. 28, 1919, and prohibition became the law.

During prohibition, women took their place at bars for the first time, alongside men. Even as in today's controversy over marijuana, there was a theory that prohibition caused a moral breakdown among young people—turning them cynical toward law enforcement and undermining their respect for authority.

Wednesday, 10 years after prohibition had begun, the stock market crashed. An era of wonderful nonsense ended with America sliding into the great depression.

The noble experiment also was doomed. With economic pressures added to the moral revulsion against the hypocrisy of prohibition, both major political parties called for its repeal in their national platforms of 1932.

On Dec. 5, 1933, the 21st amendment to the Constitution was ratified, repealing the 18th amendment. Prohibition ended.

What had prohibition accomplished? Before Volstead, Americans drank an average of 1.84 gallons of intoxicants per person per year. Last year the figure was 1.7 gallons.

During prohibition, the average was 1.95 gallons.

Most sturgeon species mature in the ocean or in brackish water before migrating up large freshwater rivers to spawn each spring. They shed hundreds of thousands of eggs, then immediately return to the ocean.

Young Says Rhodes Won't Seek Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Stephen M. Young predicted Tuesday that Gov. James A. Rhodes of Ohio will not run for the Senate in 1970.

The 80-year-old Ohio Democrat, who recently announced he would not seek re-election, gave no reason for his opinion.

But Young did say that he and the Republican governor "have had a very good relationship. I would get phone calls from the executive office in Columbus and I would call him."

Young said a Democratic-sponsored poll conducted before he announced his intended retirement showed him well ahead of Rhodes in a trial heat. But Young said Rep. Robert Taft Jr., R-Ohio, was narrowly ahead of him in another.

Young narrowly beat Taft in 1964, when Lyndon B. Johnson carried Ohio over Sen. Barry Goldwater by more than one million votes in the presidential election.

Young said he does not know if Taft will run for the Senate next year.

Firm To Close Ohio Factory Despite Pleas

NEW YORK (AP) — American Standard Co. President William Eberle told Ohio Gov. James A. Rhodes Tuesday that the firm definitely will close its Columbus plant.

But Eberle and other company officials who met with Rhodes pledged their full assistance in finding a new industry to occupy the plant building with the aim of providing employment for workers displaced by the shutdown.

"We feel that our trip here was worthwhile," Rhodes said after the three-hour meeting.

Rhodes was accompanied to the meeting by State Development Director F. P. Neuen-schwander and three officials of the United Auto Workers union, representing employees of the plant.

GM Phases Out Cleveland Plant

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — General Motors Corp. is phasing out its Fisher Body plant in suburban Brooklyn, and it is not known if the plant will be closed or if it will be used by GM for other production.

The phase out, announced Monday by a GM spokesman, affects 1,000 hourly and salaried employees. The plant produces a variety of decorative and functional hardware for GM automobiles.

NEW YORK (AP) — Jacques Cousteau and his undersea adventures returned to ABC Tuesday for another series of special reports, in this instance a fascinating study of the gray-or-desert-whale.

Cousteau's ocean-going laboratory, the ship Calypso, followed the 35-ton mammals from their summer residence, the Arctic Ocean, through their annual 5,000-mile journey to shallow lagoons off Baja California.

The huge creatures, facing extinction by hunters, return south to mate and bear their young. While Cousteau's cameramen risked their lives repeatedly to get pictures of whale courtship rituals, the animals roiled the waters so it was impossible to get anything on film. The cameramen failed, too, in efforts to film the birth of a whale. But there was some remarkable underwater photography of mating whales.

The most interesting portion of the program showed efforts of the Calypso crew to save a baby whale, injured and stranded on a beach.

While cameras recorded the details, the men treated its wounds, returned it to the water and attempted to substitute a man-made formula for its mother's milk. Since this was a true-life story, the little-one ton-whale died. The viewer felt almost as sorry as the Cousteau crew.

ABC's "Movie of the Week" was a 90-minute show called "The Young Lawyers" and it had every earmark of a program designed to become a future series. It was fashioned from the basic recipe used for the popular series, "Mod Squad."

The latter centers on three young police undercover agents supervised by an experienced cop. "The Young Lawyers" had three young law students supervised by an experienced attorney.

The pilot show was filmed in Boston—a state which permits law students to practice in court with some supervision.

The action involved a neighborhood law office and a case of two unemployed musicians accused of robbing and beating a cab driver. The legal kids, of course, cracked the case and there was one of those inevitable witness stand denunciations.

It was an interesting show with possibilities.

ABC, which has a number of half-hour programs in serious ratings troubles and candidates for midseason cancellation, has signed Pat Paulsen for a comedy series "In 1970."

The wording of the announcement suggests it will be one of the replacement series. Paulsen and his dead-pan humor attracted attention on "The Smothers Brothers Comedy Hour," especially his kidding candidacy for president. Later he moved to the Glen Campbell show.

State Leaders Support Voting Age Amendment

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Top Democratic and Republican officials Tuesday urged support of a constitutional amendment to lower the voting age from 21 to 19.

"Passage of Issue One calls for your personal commitment, your time and energy and leadership," State Democratic Chairman Eugene P. O'Grady told local party officials in a memorandum.

State Auditor Roger Cloud, addressing the Washington Court House Rotary Club, said extending the vote "will help fulfill the legitimate aspirations of young people for meaningful participation in the political process."

The issue will be on the ballot Nov. 4.

Government Will Stay Out Of GE Strike Negotiations

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration, viewing the nationwide General Electric strike as a test of its anti-inflation policies, says it will let the company and unions fight it out without federal interference.

Secretary of Labor George P. Shultz said the government will keep out of the GE strike except for the voluntary efforts of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service. If any war production is stopped, Shultz indicated, the government would consider a Taft-Hartley injunction only against the few plants involved.

Shultz said the Nixon administration had already warned both labor and business not to base wage and price decisions on the assumption of continued inflation.

"Why is the company putting up so much resistance?" Shultz asked. "It seems to me the reason must be, and I believe it is true in the case of General Electric, they are feeling the effects of the anti-inflation policy in their product market, they can't just raise their prices so easily."

That means that their profits will be squeezed by a large wage increase.

"There's nothing as likely to put backbone into company negotiators than a squeeze on their profits. That's what's really going on here," said Shultz.

Shultz' remark infuriated leaders of a 12-union AFL-CIO combine representing some 147,000 strikers.

"If they're going to keep their hands out of it, they ought to keep their mouth out of these affairs," said a highly placed labor source.

The labor source also sharply countered Shultz's claim that a profit squeeze led to GE's stiff resistance to wage demands, citing Standard and Poor figures that the firm's profits climbed 11 per cent the third quarter of this year over the same period of 1968.

A Bit Of History Fades From Roundtown

The Circleville Herald, Wed. Oct. 29, 1969 17
Circleville, Ohio

Los Angeles Police Seek Negro Recruits From South

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A task force of high-level Los Angeles police officers is slated to embark within a month on a lengthy tour of Negro colleges in the Deep South. Its mission: to recruit black policemen.

Inspector Merton Howe, the department's chief of staff, announced the plan Tuesday. He said the task force would be gone between six weeks and two months in an effort to "recruit as many black college students as we possibly can."

The idea stemmed from a letter to Police Chief Edward Davis from Celes King III, a leader in the Los Angeles black community who heads the Volunteer Rumer Control and Information Center.

King, who wrote to Davis last Aug. 29 when the latter assumed office, noted that a similar drive a few years ago in white schools of the South brought in many applicants.

Howe said at present only about 5 per cent of the 6,000-man force are Negroes.

He added that the search for more would be made in the South because "we haven't been able to recruit enough of the college level minority officers in Los Angeles."

He listed two major reasons for the failure locally.

"One I've heard is that members of the Negro community ostracize those who become police officers. Also, with community relations being stressed so much, many minority people with the qualifications can find positions they like better and which pay more elsewhere." Beginning officers receive $755 monthly.

Howe also disclosed plans to implement another suggestion by King—the establishment of a police complaint center.

It will be manned, Howe said, by a black, a brown and a white, each empowered to handle the complaints of his own ethnic group.

Cummings Hit By Lawsuit

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Mary Elliot Cummings, suing actor Robert Cummings for separate maintenance, says he uses drugs and has carried on a three-continent affair with a divorcee.

Cummings, 59, sued for divorce March 6 charging cruelty. In her action filed Tuesday, Mrs. Cummings, 51, alleged cruelty, desertion and infidelity.

Mrs. Cummings named as co-respondent Regina Fong, 38, described as a native of the Portuguese colony of Macao on the China coast. The complaint said Cummings had been with the former secretary in Hong Kong, New York and Paris, and traveled across America with her in a camper.

The complaint declared Cummings had been using methadone since 1965 and in recent years had undertaken losing business ventures on the advice of astrologers and numerologists.

Mr. and Mrs. Cummings were married March 3, 1945, and have five children.

Former Columbus Newsman Succumbs

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Veteran Columbus Dispatch newsman Jake Stahl, 74, who retired in 1967, died Tuesday in Riverside Hospital, where he was admitted following a heart attack.

Stahl joined The Dispatch in 1924 after working for The Sandusky Register and Star-Journal in his home town. He served in various capacities, including copy editor, picture editor, feature editor and news and city editor.

Marine Gets 20 Years For Murder

DA NANG, Vietnam (AP) — "I'm innocent; I did not do it," Marine Sgt. James W. Killen said today after being sentenced to 20 years in prison for the killing of an Australian singer as she performed in an officers' club.

"I've given the Marine Corps 10 years of my life," Killen told the court. "I just can't believe that this is really happening to me."

Killen, 28, of Winter Haven, Fla., was convicted Tuesday of the unpremeditated murder of Catherine Anne Warnes, 20, during a performance in a Marine club July 20. The prosecution said he was aiming at his commanding officer, Maj. Roger E. Simmons of Dale City, Va., and hit the singer by mistake.

The court of five officers and three senior sergeants also sentenced Killen to reduction in rank to private, a dishonorable discharge and forfeiture of all pay and allowances.

The sentence will be reviewed automatically by Maj. Gen. Ormond Simpson, commander of the U.S. 1st Marine Division. He could order the penalty reduced. Killen was returned to the Marine stockade at Da Nang to await Simpson's decision.

Miss Warnes was killed by a .22-caliber bullet fired through a screen window from outside the club. The prosecution said Killen, who had been drinking, fired from about 100 feet away and was using a silencer.

Mausoleum Is Scene Of Dance Parties

ROCKFORD, Ill. (AP) — Revelers were literally dancing in a former senator's tomb until it was sealed by masons who built a concrete block wall where a metal door previously guarded it.

The vault was the tomb of the late U. S. Sen. Joseph Medill McCormick, once editor and publisher of the Chicago Tribune and elected U. S. senator-at-large in 1916. He also served as Republican senator from 1918 to 1924.

The Rev. George H. Swallow, pastor of a church adjacent to the Middle Creek United Presbyterian Church Cemetery, said he is not so sure trespassing will be halted on the mausoleum plot.

Revelers had "forced open the heavy door of the vault, and had parties inside, parties that frequently included liquor," he said.

Truck Firm Closes Down After Slaying

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — A trucking company caught up in a union dispute that led to the death of one man during a gunfight is suspending operations.

"As long as anarchy runs the streets, I will not jeopardize the safety of my men," Jerry L. Stoneburner, general manager of Stony's Trucking Co., said.

Stoneburner's announcement came hours after John J. Gorsline, 25, a Teamsters Union business agent from Cleveland, was fatally shot as a convoy of seven trucks rolled through the gates of the Republic Steel Corp. plant.

Stoneburner said the company would cease operations "until the power struggle" between the Teamsters and the Fraternal Association of Steel Haulers was settled.

About 200 Teamsters who launched a wildcat strike against Stony's 11 days ago and members of the steel haulers union had gathered at Republic's gates.

Two of the seven trucks, all driven by regular Teamsters, made it through the gates. Then gunfire erupted and Gorsline was killed.

INTERURBAN — A passenger boards the interurban at Cook's store, agent for the Traction Line, at the corner of Court and Watt Sts. Mr. Cook continued as agent and operated a confectionery in the building, now being razed, when it was built by the Scioto Valley line. The first passenger coach on the traction line came into Circleville on August 5, 1904 carrying six passengers, the trip having been made from Parsons Ave., Columbus to Water St., Circleville in 50 minutes.

TRACTION STATION IN EARLY 1900s — During the warmer months of the year, passengers could await the arrival of the traction car in the sheltered outside area. Ticket offices and baggage department were located on the north side of the building. A turn-around and freight station were located along the north side and at the rear. Mr. Cook continued as agent for the traction line in the new building and operated a confectionery which adjoined the offices.

1969 LANDMARK — Only the occupants changed at the station house on N. Court St. The building was built after 1910 and before 1920, according to one senior citizen, and has always been used as a travel station, first for the majestic, speedy traction cars, then by motor buses. The buses are still on the scene. The building will cease to exist except in nostalgic reminiscences.

Navy Defends Lobbying For Super Transport

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy has confirmed the legitimacy of a document detailing lobbying efforts by the service on behalf of a fleet of super transport ships.

But the Navy says the so far futile effort for fast deployment logistic—FDL—ships was an unusual activity by the Pentagon's 339-man lobbying force, which costs $4 million a year.

The Navy's confirmation Tuesday of a four-page fact sheet titled "FDL Public Affairs" came 2½ weeks after a group of student "Pentagon Watchers" sponsored by the private Institute for Policy Studies released the document to newsmen.

"The FDL Paper," as the institute called it, outlined a comprehensive lobbying effort on Capitol Hill with the help of men from industries bidding for the project.

The Navy described the 1967 document as "a working status report."

In response to written questions whether the FDL program was typical, the Navy's statement said:

"The FDL program was unprecedented in many ways, including its military function, manner of design and proposed total package procurement. The unprecedented nature of the program imposed special requirements, including congressional briefings."

Chill Nips North Half Of Nation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A freezing chill nipped much of the northern half of the nation and parts of the South today and a fresh outbreak of cold scattered snow through the northern Rockies.

Temperatures topped into the 20s throughout the northern tier of states from the Rockies to New England. The mercury settled to 18 at Watertown, N.Y., before daybreak.

Snow fell in Colorado, Wyoming and Montana and piled to depths of 6 inches or more on eastern slopes of the Rockies in Montana.

Rain was mixed with snow in portions of Colorado and spilled onto the plains as showers and drizzle in Kansas and Nebraska. Showers also splashed over the Pacific Northwest.

Fair and pleasant weather favored the far Southwest, including California.

The notation for Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., then Senate Armed Services Committee chairman and the man whose opposition was the primary ingredient in blocking the Navy proposal, read: "The senator was not responsive. Direct contact by Army-Navy personnel required."

The paper listed some congressmen as having been contacted by men from Lockheed Aircraft Corp., Litton Industries, Inc., or General Dynamics Corp., the three firms bidding for the project.

Spokesmen for the firms said such exchange of information between the industry and military men was not routine. The Lockheed spokesman questioned the validity of the paper.

The paper listed eight House and Senate members who had already been sounded out on the project and named 10 other congressmen and former White House aide Joseph Califano as due for briefings.

The memo also listed news stories, speeches and union action relating to the proposal, told whether it was favorable or unfavorable and outlined recommended action to try to sway the program's opponents.

Brown Attacks House Colleagues

WASHINGTON (AP) — "The doves who had been cooing for military spending reductions are squawking like wounded eagles" now over the Pentagon's latest economy moves, Rep. Clarence Brown said Tuesday.

The Ohio Republican said his House colleagues are objecting because the defense cuts affect their districts.

His remark was aimed at critics of the Pentagon's announced cutback at 307 military bases designed to reduce spending by $609 million a year.

Reform Jews Vote Against School Plan

MIAMI BEACH (AP) — Opposing their own rabbis, the American Reform Jewish laity have voted against creating a fulltime private school system for their children.

Financial troubles in the Roman Catholic parochial schools, an unwillingness to ask for federal funds and loyalty to the nation's public schools were cited before the defeat Tuesday of a Jewish day school proposal at the Union of American Hebrew Congregations (UAHC) convention.

The rejection by standing vote in a 3-2 ratio among the 2,000 delegates put the UAHC in direct conflict with its national rabbinical organization, the Central Conference of American Rabbis (CCAR).

Since neither body had legislative power over the synagogues, temples that have started nursery schools and kindergartens and want to pay for their own higher-level schools may do so.

But the UAHC rejection in general assembly means no nationwide system will be built up to match the Hebrew day schools of Orthodox and Conservative Judaism.

Reform Judaism in the United States has one million members, 700 synagogues and 1,000 rabbis.

The CCAR strongly approved at its convention in Houston four months ago an almost identical resolution to the one the UAHC turned down. The Jewish Education Commission, a joint agency of the UAHC and CCAR, Later, buildings began to sway ominously and frightened people rushed to the streets seeking shelter.

"Monkeys and peacocks are endowed with a sixth sense for earthquakes," Cairo zoo director Dr. Mohamed Abdel Rahim said.

"The other animals do not have that sensitivity," he added.

GE Strike Talks Reach Standstill

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The AFL-CIO Executive Council meets in Washington today to rally support for a 13-union strike against General Electric Co., now in its third day.

Meanwhile, the GE management told a stockholders' meeting in Minneapolis, Minn., Tuesday that it would not increase its present offer to meet "super-inflationary" union demands.

George Meany, AFL-CIO president, called today's session to make good his pledge to back the strike with all of organized labor.

There was picket line violence in five cities Tuesday. But GE, the nation's fourth largest industrial corporation, said all 280 plants in 33 states were open.

Production was halted at an undetermined number of plants, as about 75 per cent of the blue-collar workers stayed out. The unions, which represent 147,000 GE workers, said 132,000 were on strike. The company said 125,000 men were out.

GE has 310,000 employees in the United States and 90,000 overseas.

The picket line disturbances were in Schenectady, N.Y., Bloomington, Ind., Lynn and Pittsfield, Mass., and Collingdale, Pa.

Police beat back nonunion workers attempting to cross the picket line in Schenectady, bloodying three, in what they said was an attempt to avert mass violence.

The strike is led by the International Union of Electrical Workers, AFL-CIO, and the independent United Electrical Workers.

The unions have demanded a 90 cents an hour increase over 30 months: 35 cents the first year, 30 the second and 25 in the last six months, plus up to 50 cents extra for special skills.

GE has offered 20 cents an hour in the first year of a three-year pact, with wage reopeners in subsequent years and premiums of 5 to 25 cents for skills. The average hourly pay is currently $3.25.

"It should be realistically realized that our present offer is inflationary — to push it up another notch, as the union officials are demanding, would clearly be superinflationary," the GE chairman and chief executive, Fred J. Borch, told a stockholders' informational meeting in Minneapolis.

California To Eliminate Use Of DDT In Next Few Years

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — California's agriculture director said today he believed the use of the pesticides DDT and DDD would be eliminated from the state's fields, gardens and homes in two to three years.

"We have every expectation of phasing it out completely by then," said Jerry W. Fielder, who was an alfalfa hay processor in Dixon, Calif., before becoming state farm chief.

Fielder announced Tuesday a

General Refuses Any Discussion Of Brothel Plan

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Army's top doctor in Vietnam declined today to discuss his suggestion that the Army's post exchanges go into the brothel business.

Brig. Gen. David E. Thomas, the surgeon general for the Army in Vietnam told newsmen last week: "If the military were permitted to run houses of prostitution as part of the post exchange system, we could cut venereal disease down to a very low figure."

"The general says he already has been interviewed and he doesn't want to say any more at this time," an aide told newsmen today.

The Army described the general's remarks as "thought provoking rather than proposals." It added: "The views expressed in no way reflect any official viewpoint."

Herman Weiss, an aide to Borch, said he had heard indirectly that the unions were prepared to stay out through Christmas.

The present offer will mean an item-by-item price increase in GE products, Borch said. GE, with $8 billion in annual sales, sells 20 per cent of its output to defense and aerospace programs and about 25 per cent to consumers. The bulk is sold to industry.

Secretary of Labor George P. Shultz has said the government will not intervene, except possibly in scattered plants if war production is held up.

But Shultz said he thought anti-inflationary profit squeezes had led to GE's hard line against union demands.

"If they're going to keep their hands out of it," one labor source said of the government, "they ought to keep their mouth out of these affairs."

Maddox Orders Speed Trap Sign For Small Town

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Signs warning motorists that they are "Approaching Georgia's renowned speed trap, Ludowici," have been ordered from the state Highway Department by Gov. Lester Maddox.

The governor said Tuesday he would pay for the signs out of his emergency fund. He said they would be implanted in concrete and may be guarded by state troopers.

The signs might not be the only action taken in regard to Ludowici, a Southeast Georgia town reputed for years to be a speed trap, Maddox said.

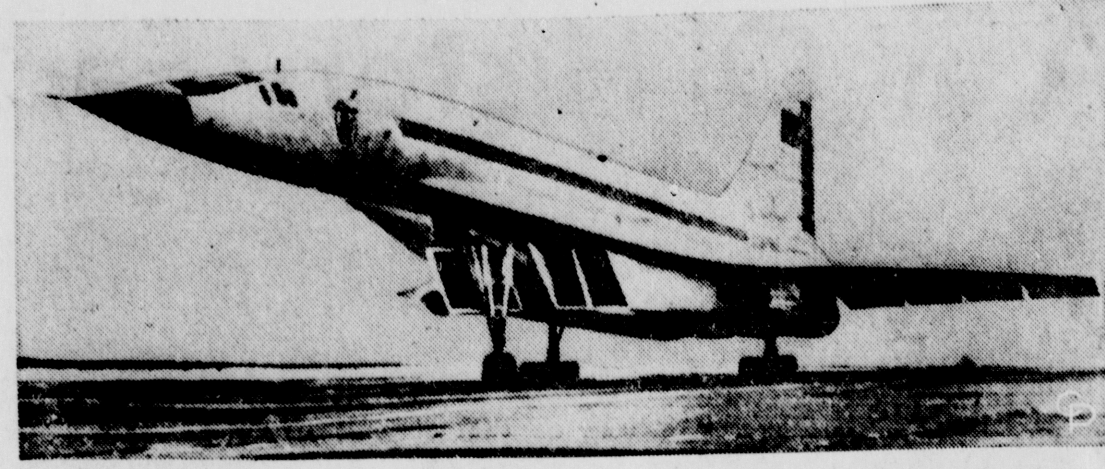

"There's that bridge just outside of town (on U.S. 301). I'll talk to the Highway Department, but it could be that the bridge needs repairing and will have to be closed for 18 months or so," said the governor.

Mustangs Host Vikings; Braves Play At Home

The final curtain descends on the '69 football season Friday night and finds Teays Valley at Westfall for the mythical county championship and Logan Elm entertains the state ranked Paint Valley squad.

Teays Valley will meet Westfall Friday night on the Mustangs home grounds in a game that could decide the supremacy of the county schools. It will be the gridiron finale for both schools this season.

The teams have identical records and will be out to salvage a disappointing season.

"Westfall has a good passer in Greg Bigam," Viking coach Dick Kidwell stated, "if he gets good protection they can move the football. Our defense will have to keep the pressure on him if they are to be contained."

"OUR offense has never come up to it's potential this season," Kidwell added, "and we have hopes that this will be the week."

"Our defense has been good and we feel they will do a good job for us Friday night," Kidwell noted.

"The injury list has dwindled and we are in the best shape

Kaiser Open II Richest Event On Golf Slate

NAPA, Calif. (AP) — Pro golf history will be made Thursday when a big, classy field of 156 tees off in "Kaiser Open II," at $140,000 the richest event on the six-stop fall tour.

It's the first time a tournament has been played twice in a single year on the U.S. circuit.

The first Kaiser of the year was played on the fancy, new Silverado Country Club course in January. But there was so much rain and the course became so water-logged that only two rounds were completed.

That tourney went into the books as the first 36-hole event in modern history.

Tournament sponsors almost immediately decided not to gamble further with January weather in this beautiful wine country north of San Francisco and put the tourney on the fall schedule.

Miller Barber, the "Mysterious Mr. X" of the tour, won the 36-hole Kaiser in January, played well until the U.S. Open in June, but has experienced little but frustration since.

The balding, 38-year-old bachelor led the Open until collapsing with a disastrous 78 on the final round at Houston, but signaled he may be on the rebound with a tie for 14th in last week's San Francisco Open.

The favorite, however, must be slim Jack Nicklaus. Nicklaus down about 20 pounds from his usual playing weight, scored an impressive four-stroke victory in his last outing, the Sahara Invitational, and ranks as the man to beat.

Other top candidates include leading money-winner Frank Beard, dangerous Dave Hill, Bill Casper, former Masters champion Bob Goalby who appears at the top of his game, Gene Littler, Masters champion George Archer, Arnold Palmer, Steve Spray, winner of last week's San Francisco Open, and possibly Dale Douglass and Chi Chi Rodriguez.

Most of the foreign players have returned home, but the only other major absentees are U.S. Open title-holder Orville Moody, Lee Trevino and Julius Boros.

Warren McVea Named Top AFL Player

NEW YORK (AP) — The end sweep was designed as a time-killer, but will-o-the-wisp Warren McVea turned it into a game-breaker for the Kansas City Chiefs.

McVea, spelling injured Mike Garrett in the closing minutes of last Sunday's American Football League game against Cincinnati, shattered the Bengals' comeback with an 80-yard touchdown dash that spurred Kansas City to a 42-22 victory.

The former Cincinnati speedster, whose electrifying broken field jaunt with 1:45 to play broke open a close struggle and capped a 141-yard rushing performance, was chosen the AFL Offensive Player of the Week today by the Associated Press.

of the season," Coach Kidwell offered.

Offensively the Vikings will field: John Tucker and Jeff Helsler at ends, Mike Mapes and Don Stur, tackles, Chuck Frazier and Harry Meek, guards, Mike Schitt at center, Stan Clay, quarterback, Champ Henson or Ron Crosby, fullback, Bob Tucker, halfback, and Dan Hicks, halfback.

The Viking's defensive unit will be: Bob Straight, middle guard, Stir and Jack Brinker, tackles, Henson and Tucker, ends, Bob Clufo and Chuck Jackson, linebackers, Jeff Helsler, rover back, Steve Hines and Ron Bell, halfbacks, and Ed McCord, safety.

Logan Elm tangles with Paint Valley, ranked eighth in the state in the Class A grid poll.

THE Bearcats are big and fast. They run from a straight T, a wing T and from a pro set on occasion.

"They play good fundamental football and they like to run right at you," LE Coach Mark Albright says.

The Bearcats can pass and do so when the occasion arises. They are a good passing team according to scouting reports.

For nine Logan Elm seniors, it will be the final game of their high school careers. Roger Evans, senior tackle, who injured his ankle two weeks ago, will not play.

All the seniors are linemen. Dan Ankrom and Byron Sykes are the veteran ends. Jim Younklin is the other senior tackle, but may see only limited action because of a hip bruise. Ralph Robey is the senior guard on the offensive line. John Beaudette, a transfer senior, is also a guard. Mark Kempton is the senior center. Bob McAfee, has seen action at both fullback and tackle and is expected to be used primarily at tackle this week. Ken Short, the other LE senior, sees most of his action in the defensive backfield.

Dale Valentine, a junior, will replace Evans at tackle. Don Benner, a sophomore, and McAfee, should see action at the spot also. Playing opposite Robey at guard will be Kenny Dean, a junior. Mike Williams, who looked good in a reserve game this week, could also see some playing time at guard.

STARTING in the backfield will be freshman John Mead at fullback. John Weaver and Wertz Teets at halfbacks and Steve Curtis at quarterback. The entire Logan Elm backfield will return next year.

With no reserve game scheduled next week, Friday's action will wrap up the season for the Braves.

NEW YORK (AP) — Calvin Hill and Walt Garrison, the Dallas Cowboys' ground punch, are running one-three in the latest individual statistics released by the National Football League.

Hill, the Yale boy who has become a sensation in the pros, is almost half way to the 1,000-yard mark after six games. An 84-yard night against New York Monday gave Hill 496 yards in 103 carries, an average of 4.8 yards.

Garrison moved up to third with 102 yards against the Giants and a season total of 378, just three behind Larry Brown, the Washington rookie from Kansas State.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Jerry Lucas has been in San Francisco less than a week, but he and the Warriors' fans already have formed a mutual admiration society.

"This is San Francisco talking," remarked a ticket buyer after the 6-foot-8 Lucas helped the Warriors stifle Milwaukee and Lew Alcindor Saturday night.

"We're frustrated," the fan added, "but we never give up hoping. We want a championship. Getting this kind of player... Well, you can almost smell a title."

HOUSTON (AP) — Rookie Jerry LeVias, a wide receiver, may start for the Houston Oilers against the Boston Patriots on Sunday, Wally Lemm, coach of the AFL Oilers, said Tuesday.

CHICAGO (AP) — Jockey Gerland Gallitano rode four winners at Sportsman's Park Tuesday.

Reds Shift 17 Players, Free Ramos

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds announced today that they have brought up nine players from farm clubs, sent eight parent team members outright to Indianapolis and unconditionally released Pedro Ramos.

Acquired were infielders Dave Concepcion and Frank Duffy, catcher Bill Plummer and outfielder Stan Swanson from Indianapolis; Pitcher Mel Behney and third baseman Kurt Bevacqua from Asheville; and outfielder Dan Godby and pitchers Milt Wilcox and Tim Grant from Tampa.

Concepcion topped the group in hitting with a .341 average at Indianapolis after batting .294 at Asheville. Swanson rapped 17 homers while Bevacqua slugged 16 home runs and knocked in 91 runs. Behney posted a 14-7 mark.

Sent to Indianapolis were pitchers Bill Blucher, Steve Mingori, Ken Myette, Jose Pena and Dennis Ribant; infielders Mike de la Hoz and Fred Whitfield and outfielder Jim Beauchamp.

Whitfield hit .149 in 1969, mainly as a pinchhitter, after batting .257 in 87 games in 1968. Beauchamp collected 15 hits in 60 times at bats.

Ramos joined Cincinnati on June 17 and appeared in 38 games with a 4-3 record.

Grid Forecaster Sees Vols Over Georgia

By HERSHEL NISSENSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
Tennessee, Florida and Louisiana State have their work cut out for them this weekend as they try to maintain their status as the leaders in the Southeastern Conference. So does Kansas State in the Big Eight and Wyoming in the Western Athletic.

And, above all, so do the unfortunate folks who have to pick these games... and put it in writing, no less.

Here goes nothing:
Tennessee at Georgia—Third-ranked Vols are averaging 39.6 points a game, fourth best in the country. Georgia Bulldogs, No. 11 have allowed only 8.2 points and are ninth in rushing defense. Who says the best offense is a good defense? It says here.

Florida at Auburn—Here's another irresistible force vs. immovable object game. Seventh-ranked Gators, averaging a third-best 39.7 points, are eighth in total offense, second in passing offense and John Reeves leads the country with 29 touchdowns.

Kevin Loughery was the big man for Baltimore with 33 points as the Bullets beat the Pistons for the 10th straight time. Detroit never got closer than 10 points after the first 14 minutes of play.

Clem Haskins scored three points in the last six seconds in Chicago's squeaker over Seattle. The Sonics overcame a 113-108 deficit with less than a minute to go and went ahead 114-113 with 13 seconds remaining.

Haskins connected on a field goal with six seconds left and was fouled when Seattle put the ball in play. He converted the second of two free throws for the last point.

Player-coach Len Wilkens of the Sonics set a Seattle Coliseum record of 17 assists and topped all scorers with 28 points. Chet Walker was high for the Bulls with 25.

After his performance in K-State's shocking 59-21 slaughter of Oklahoma last Saturday, Namath should be watching films of Dickey. He might even recognize the white shoes.

All the 6-foot-4, 204-pounder from Osawatomie, Kan., did was set Big Eight records with 28 completions for 380 yards as the Wildcats beat Oklahoma for the first time in 35 years, included in the barrage were three touchdown passes.

For that performance, Dickey was named college football's Back of the Week by The Associated Press.

Celts Manage To Defeat Milwaukee Without Russell

Without Bill Russell in the line-up, Lew Alcindor certainly was the center of attraction, but the Boston Celtics stole the spotlight in the end.

The Celtics finally proved they could win without the retired Russell by bombing the Milwaukee Bucks 120-107 Tuesday night in Milwaukee.

It was Boston's first victory this season after four defeats and the Celtics did it despite Alcindor's 43 points for the Bucks while Russell's replacements at Center, Henry Finkel and Rich Niemann, managed only one point between them.

In other games, the New York Knicks ran their record to 8-1 by swamping the visiting Atlanta Hawks 128-104, Baltimore blasted host Detroit 125-110 and Chicago edged Seattle 116-114.

Alcindor, the 7-foot-2 rookie sensation, had 29 points by halftime and the Celtics led only 59-57, but the margin grew to 94-84 after three quarters and a 15-2 spurt buried the Bucks.

John Havlicek's 25 points, Emmett Bryant's 24, and 21 each by Larry Siegfried and Tom Sanders offset Alcindor's performance.

Willis Reed, hitting 18 of his 28 points, led the Knicks to a 62 per cent shooting percentage and a 66-55 half-time spread. It grew from there.

down tosses. Auburn, ranked 17th, is second in total defense, seventh in pass defense. Reeves hasn't faced a defense like Auburn.

Louisiana State at Mississippi—LSU's eighth-ranked Tigers are scoring at a 36.3 clip but their forte is defense — seventh overall, third against rushing and fourth in yielding points. But LSU hasn't faced a quarterback like Archie Manning of Mississippi.

Kansas State at Missouri—Amazing Wildcats rated 12th, reached a peak in mauling Oklahoma last Saturday while 141 h-r-a-n-k-e-d Missouri was knocked from the unbeaten ranks by Colorado. The pick is... Missouri to pop the Purple.

Wyoming at Arizona State—Cowboys are ranked 15th, third in total defense and first in rushing defense. But they're also beset by racial troubles, with Coach Lloyd Eaton dropping 14 blacks from the squad. Another unbeaten bites the dust? Arizona State!

Ohio State at Northwestern—Top-ranked Buckeyes want to go to a bowl, but they're inept. They'll have to settle for another victory. Ohio State!

Texas at Southern Methodist—SMU's Chuck Hixson could fill the air with footballs... if the second-ranked Longhorns' five running backs ever give up the football. Texas!

Boston College at Penn State—Coach Joe Yukica of B.C., a former Penn State star, has a problem. "I suppose it'll be a strange feeling to hear my alma mater being played while I'm trying to figure a way to win," he said. That's the least of his problems. Penn State!

Colorado at Nebraska—Winner can tie for the Big Eight lead if Missouri beats Kansas State. The winner... Colorado!

Air Force at Army—Off we go into the wild blue yonder. Air Force!

Rockets And Redskins To Tangle

By GEORGE STRODE
Associated Press Sports Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Two of the nation's top defensive teams, Toledo and host Miami, square off Saturday in the Mid-American Conference football game of the year.

Unbeaten Toledo, second in the nation in rushing defense, winds up its Mid-American season, needing a victory to assure itself of a first undisputed conference crown and a trip to the Tangerine Bowl.

Miami, blanked for the first time in 44 games last week 3-0 at Bowling Green, could scramble the Mid-American title picture with a triumph.

If the Redskins win and dispose of Kent in their final league test and Bowling Green whips Ohio University, the title would be split three ways.

It would then require a conference faculty representatives' vote to decide whether Toledo, Miami or Bowling Green would oppose the Southern Conference titlist in the Tangerine Bowl.

Miami, eighth among the nation's rushing defense leaders, has a 2-1 league record for third place behind Toledo's 4-0 and Bowling Green's 3-1.

Bowling Green's 3-0 surprise over Miami was a costly victory built on Art Curtis' first career field goal of 39 yards.

Joe Shocklee, 230-pound tackle from Akron, suffered a broken leg and is sidelined for the season. Falcon Coach Don Nehlen termed Shocklee Bowling Green's second best offensive lineman.

Toledo, blessed with brute strength, took care of Kent in the first four minutes, putting 13 points on the scoreboard. The Rockets are the lone unbeaten team in the conference and only one of four remaining in Ohio.

The others are Defiance (7-0-0), Ohio State (5-0-0) and Wittenberg (5-0-0). Toledo has won six in a row this season.

Elsewhere Saturday, Bowling Green visits Marshall, trying to extend the Big Green's winless streak to 28 games and Ohio awaits Western Michigan. Kent awaits Louisville and will face the Cardinals without ace rusher Don Nottingham, sidelined with a broken finger.

In the Ohio Conference, co-leading Ohio Wesleyan draws a big assignment against visiting Baldwin-Wallace. Wesleyan puts its 3-0 league record — same as Wittenberg — on the line against the defending conference kings.

Wittenberg is involved outside the league Saturday at Bucknell.

Defiance, already assured of a second straight Mid-Ohio Conference title with a 33-0 romp over Bluffton last week, takes its unbeaten record to Central State.

OSU Athlete Faced With Pressures

By GEORGE STRODE
Associated Press Sports Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Rex Kern is like a lot of Ohio State University's 41,500 students in one respect.

He rolls out of his Phi Delta Theta fraternity bed each weekday morning at 7, ready to tackle a hearty breakfast and five hours of classes.

But Kern is unlike other students. The junior redhead is the recognized leader of unbeaten Ohio State's football team, driving toward a second successive Associated Press national title.

With that, he faces pressures other students on this big campus do not encounter. Fan mail, speaking requests, calls from writers and fellow students wanting to talk about the game are part of Kern's day.

"It's more difficult for an athlete to be a student," admits Kern, a physical education major with a 2.8 scholastic average.

Kern, a quarterback who already owns the Ohio State career yardage record (2,588) after only the fifth game of his junior year, is more in demand than other college athlete speakers. He's deeply religious—he reads the Bible nightly in his room before going to bed—and is an active member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

"I think we have too many passive Christians nowadays that like to be labeled that but they don't like to go out and profess it," Kern contends.

Kern is one of those athletes who commands the respect of his coaches, teammates, the opposition and writers — not to mention girls.

When he was in California after last season's quarterbacking the Buckeyes to a Rose Bowl win over Southern California, Kern made such an impression on Nancy Henno, a game princess, that she transferred to Ohio State.

"That's the first time she had been East," chuckles Kern. He admits it's tough finding time during the season to spend with his 19-year-old girl from Pasadena, Calif.

Woody Hayes, who has spent 19 of his 26 coaching years at Ohio State, calls Kern the best quarterback he's had. And Hayes is a man working on his fourth national championship.

"He combines more versatility than any player I've had at that position," Hayes claims. "He's an excellent passer and runner and knows when to do which. For a youngster he makes few mistakes."

On a powerhouse equipped with at least seven first-rate runners, Kern still has found time to rush for 1913 yards and 15 touchdowns and pass for 1675 yards and another 13 scores.

He's done this despite a list of injuries — dislocated shoulder twice, slipped back disc, sprained ankle and knee problems — and two operations.

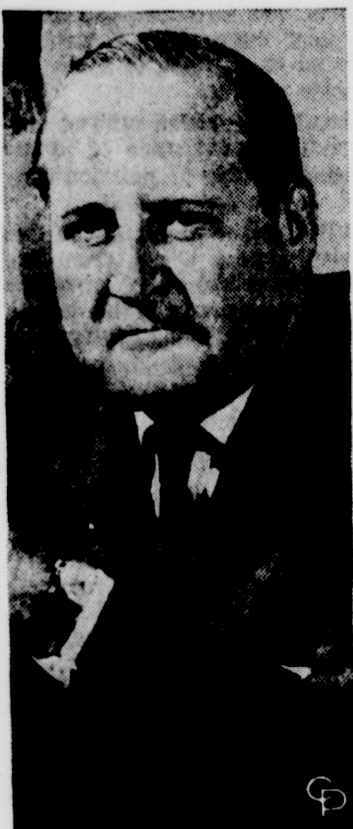

Kern blames most of his injuries on a slipped disc he suffered while high jumping in a physical education class. He underwent an operation for it in June 1968.

"I left me about a week to prepare for my sophomore season," he recalls. "I wasn't in any type of condition. Physically I was smaller (176 to 186 pounds now) and mentally I was unsound because of the back."

If Kern can go through the remainder of the season without any big injuries, he plans to join Ohio State's basketball team which is expected to put in a strong bid for the Big Ten title.

That decision, of course, reflects his high school career at Lancaster, Ohio. He was All-Ohio in football, basketball and baseball. Rex owned every major scoring game record at Lancaster. A six-footer, he played guard on a state tournament semifinalist team as a junior, then jumped center in his final season.

"As good as he is in football and basketball," Ohio University assistant basketball coach George Hill points out, "the boy could be a major league baseball player." Hill coached Kern as a school basketball player.

CHIEF ARMS TALKER—Gerald C. Smith, shown in his Washington office as director of the U.S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency, will head a U.S. delegation to Helsinki, Finland, for preliminary talks with the Russians on curbing the strategic arms race. The talks begin Nov. 17.

Cuba Holds Mass Marriage Ceremony

HAVANA (AP)—Local government officials across Cuba are in the midst of a campaign to get peasant couples who live together to legalize their marriages.

At a mass ceremony recently in the Camaguey-Vertientes region of Camaguey Province, 28 such couples, guided by the Assistance Plan of the Secretary of Communal Matters, made their marriages official.

The oldest couple was Ricardo Almarales, 77, and Mercedes Gonzalez, 62. They have been together 40 years and have six children and 19 grandchildren.

Rats Eat Nest Egg

DURBAN, South Africa (AP)—African office messenger Raphael Magala walked into a building society here to deposit Rands 120 ($168) in hard-earned savings from his Rands 13 ($18.20) a week salary. He emptied a brown-paper bag of shredded paper on the counter — rats had made confetti of his nest egg.

"We have lost everything," said Raphael, 30-year-old father of three. But the building society put him in touch with the Reserve Bank, which promised to do "all we can to help him replace the notes."

"I left me about a week to prepare for my sophomore season," he recalls. "I wasn't in any type of condition. Physically I was smaller (176 to 186 pounds now) and mentally I was unsound because of the back."

Educational Facilities Needed For The Retarded

WORKSHOP — The Pickaway County Workshop for retarded adults is conducted in the old multi purpose room of Wayne Twp. School. Here Donald Hough (left) supervises activities in the workshop.

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following article was written by Donald Hough, administrator of the Brooks-Yates School and the Pickaway County Workshop for mentally retarded. The Pickaway County Mental Health Board is seeking a $518,000 bond issue for a new building and a five-tenth mill operating levy.

I am so proud of being a parent. What a delight when a child first sits alone, takes the first step, say the first word, catches the first ball, writes the first letter, reads the first word. We all look for these signs in our children and expect a normal development.

Have you ever been disappointed? Have you ever experienced the extreme heart ache of a parent who learns that his or her child is one of the hundreds of retardates born every minute? Retardation is no respecter of persons.

It can happen in any one of our homes, in families of every race and religion at any time for any number of reasons.

These children need extra love and attention from you and from me. They are entitled to an education the same as any child and it is our responsibility to provide them with the best. The educational facilities for the mentally retarded need to be improved in our country.

Nixon Back On Political Trail With Support For Candidates

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon has returned to the political wars after almost a year's lull, employing his standard campaign stance as though 1968 never ended.

Nixon, who flies to New Jersey tonight in behalf of that state's Republican candidate for governor, went into Virginia Tuesday evening to stump for the GOP gubernatorial candidate there.

Speaking before 5,000 or more at the Salem-Roanoke Valley Civic Center, Nixon drew cheers from the start when he simply stood at the rostrum and flung his hands wide in a gesture reminiscent of the 1968 campaign.

Not only were the gestures a replay of 1968; so were the issues he raised.

In an area long devoted to the cause of states' rights, Nixon said his administration finally is doing something about moving power out of Washington and back to "states and the people."

He also came out on the side of law and order and those who abhor narcotics and obscenity.

Find . . .

Late in 1968, he was charged with conspiracy to transport stolen television sets across state lines.

Asked about his relationship with Bufalino, Medico said in a telephone interview that he had known him all his life. As for the allegation that Bufalino frequents the Medico plant, he added: "Sure he comes to see us. We're selling him equipment; he's a customer. I can't tell him to get the hell out."

Medico is active in civic affairs in Pittston, a city of about 13,000 in the coal mining region of Pennsylvania at the foot of the Pocono Mountains.

He has won praise for his work in behalf of local charity drives as well as for contributing men and material during the 1964 presidential campaign to build a platform at the Wilkes Barre-Scranton Airport for use by President Lyndon B. Johnson.

His record of getting government contracts goes back to the 1950's. Medico Industries has produced such items as maintenance platforms for the Air Force and Navy, rebuilt generators for the Signal Corps, rebuilt machine tools and hydraulic wing jacks for the Army, Navy and Air Force. It also had had contracts from the cities of New York and Detroit.

Nixon was accompanied on his Virginia foray by Patrick Buchanan, often labeled his "conservative" speechwriter. There was a possibility that Raymond Price, generally regarded as his "liberal" speechwriter, might go with him to New Jersey.

Nixon went to Virginia to campaign for Republican Linwood Holtzman who is facing Democrat William C. Battle in a tight race for governor.

Responding to the welcoming cheers—and indirectly noting a contention by Battle that Holtzman has been bringing in campaign workers who have "no more interest in Virginia than a fly-by-night butterfly"—Nixon said:

"All I can say is that's quite a welcome for an outside agitator."

Automakers . .

or, this case is going to trial." The Justice Department, in seeking the consent decree, argued that it would widen research on antisemitic devices.

Major provisions of the decree deal with patent and research data. The defendants, for instance, are forbidden to continue joint assessment of patents offered to any one of them by outside parties.

Another provision outlaws any confidential exchange of information relating to emission control devices.

Still another prohibits the defendants, as a group, from restraining decisions of an individual company as to the date it will install antisemitic devices.

The five defendants were indicted by a federal grand jury which completed a nine-month study two years ago.

Opponents of the settlement declared that evidence gathered during the probe should be made public.

Judge Curtis said he planned to have the jury's transcript impanelled, but said it would be available for use by damage claimants and others wishing to bring legal action against the automakers.

Social Security Answers

Q — I understand that the Medicare premium rate might be different each year. How will I know what the premiums will be each year?

A — In December of each year, starting in 1968, the Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare announces the premium rate effective the following July. He also publishes the reasons for the rate and the bases on which it is established for each year.

Q — Since I did not sign up for Medicare when it was first available, is it true that I will have to pay a higher premium to enroll this year?

A — Yes, persons who enroll late will pay 10 per cent more for each full year they could have been enrolled but failed to sign up.

Q — I receive widows benefits now and will be 65 next year. Will I be covered automatically by Medicare at that time?

A — You will receive a notice about Medicare from the Social Security Administration several months before your 65th birthday. Hospital Insurance coverage will be a automatic for you at that time but you will need to complete and return the election form to start your Medical Insurance coverage. In order for the Medical Insurance to start with the month you reach 65, Social Security must receive the election before the month begins.

Q — What is meant by the "carry-over" rule under the medical insurance Part B of Medicare?

A — Medical insurance does not pay any of the first $50 of covered expenses in a calendar year. After this deductible has been met Medicare pays 80 per cent of covered expenses. The "carry-over" rule provides that any bills for services rendered in the last three months of the year, which apply toward the $50 deductible for that year, will also apply against the $50 deductible for the following year.
